

Personal Lines Insurance Agent

The Crowley Agency has been in business since 1947 providing excellent service and products to our many loyal customers. We currently have an open position for a licensed personal lines agent with the opportunity to grow into commercial lines. The ideal candidate would be personable, possess excellent communication skills and really enjoy helping people.

This is a full time position with office hours and basic computer skills are required. We offer competitive salary, commission & benefits based on experience and qualifications.

Please send your resume to Gail McKenna at gailm@crowleyagency.com

For more details regarding our products and the companies that we represent please visit our website: CrowleyAgency.com