

New England Excess Exchange, Ltd. is seeking Commercial and Personal Lines Producers to join our growing team!

NEEE, Ltd. is a family owned and operated E&S brokerage firm, established in 1981, based in Barre, Vermont with 48 employees.

The ideal applicant for Commercial or Personal Lines would have a bachelors degree or commiserate insurance experience. That said, we've found the most successful underwriters are detail oriented and driven with strong organizational skills while having an analytical mind and welcoming personality.

This individual will need to obtain their state Property and Casualty license and maintain the Continuing Education units as directed by state regulatory guidelines, with our aide; but, we will train them in the role and, at least initially, have the renewals and a submission flow from which they can develop professional relationships and the experience needed to grow a book of business. If they can efficiently multitask, while delivering a high degree of accuracy, they will enjoy a very successful and lucrative career here at NEEE, Ltd.

These are commission structured positions with a generous draw to allow for livable bi-weekly pay between quarterly commission opportunities.

Primary Expectations:

- Provide superior customer service to our agents and partner companies
- Develop relationships with agents and markets
- Accountable for underwriting decisions
- Manage a large volume of calls and emails with timely responses
- Ability to work independently and within a team
- Excellent oral and written communication

Applicants can submit their resume to Renee Grzankowski, rgrzankowski@neee.com.
